See you all then!

An important message from CD6:

Hope you are having a Wonderful Week. Just want to let you know that District 64 voted to stop participation with CD6. Thus, CD6 will cease to exist as an operating entity. District 62 will keep the name only, in hopes that perhaps someday we may come together, stronger than ever to Serve Great Fort Worth, without having to remain in our District Borders. The purpose for maintaining the name is because it takes a lot of time and energy to start up a new Not for Profit Organization. Distributions will be made to Fort Worth Central Office, NETA65 and GSO, leaving a Zero / 0.00 balance. Therefore, no contributions should be made to CD6 after 12/31/21. If a check is received after that date, the check will be returned to the insurer. Thank you, for your continued Service in AA. Love and Service, Jamie C ~ DCM62

Big Book Quote of the Month

“...As soon as we admitted the possible existence of a Creative Intelligence, a Spirit of the Universe underlying the totality of things, we began to be possessed of a new sense of power and direction, provided we took other simple steps.”

Used with permission of AAWS, Inc. Big Book pg.46

STEP 3

“Made a decision to turn our will and our lives over to the care of God as we understood Him.”

“The first requirement is that we be convinced that any life run on self-will can hardly be a success. On that basis we are almost always in collision with something or somebody, even though our motives are good. Most people try to live by self-propulsion. Each person is like an actor who wants to run the whole show; is forever trying to arrange the lights, the ballet, the scenery, and the rest of the players in his own way. If his arrangements would only stay put, if only people would do as he wished, the show would be great. Everybody, including himself, would be pleased. Life would be wonderful. In trying to make these arrangements our actor may sometimes be quite virtuous. He may be kind, considerate, patient, generous; even modest and self-sacrificing. On the other hand, he may be mean, egotistical, selfish and dishonest. But, as with most humans, he is more likely to have varied traits.”

TRADITION 3

“The only requirement for A.A. membership is a desire to stop drinking.”

“This Tradition is packed with meaning. For A.A. is really saying to every serious drinker, “You are an A.A. member if you say so. You can declare yourself in; nobody can keep you out. No matter who you are, no matter how low you've gone, no matter how grave your emotional complications—even your crimes—we still can't deny you A.A. We don't want to keep you out. We aren't a bit afraid you'll harm us, never mind how twisted or violent you may be. We just want to be sure that you get the same great chance for sobriety that we've had. So you're an A.A. member the minute you declare yourself.”

To establish this principle of membership took years of harrowing experience. In our early time, nothing seemed so fragile, so easily breakable as an A.A. group. Hardly an alcoholic we approached paid any attention; most of those who did join us were like flickering candles in a windstorm. Time after time, their uncertain flames blew out and couldn't be relighted. Our unspoken, constant thought was

“Which of us may be the next?”

CONCEPT 3

“As a traditional means of creating and maintaining a clearly defined working relation between the groups, the Conference, the A.A. General Service Board and its several service corporations, staffs, committees and executives, and of thus insuring their effective leadership, it is here suggested that we endow each of these elements of world service with a traditional “Right of Decision.”

“Within the framework of their general responsibilities, whether these be defined by charter, by resolution, or by custom, it should be the traditional right of all world service boards, committees, and executives to decide which problems they will dispose of themselves, and upon which matters they will report, consult, or ask specific directions. We ought to trust our world servants with these discretions, because otherwise no effective leadership can be possible. Let us consider in detail, therefore, why the need for a “right of decision” in our leadership is imperative and let us examine how this principle can be applied practically in all levels of our structure of world service.”
